ARMCHAIR ERIK

The Erik series combines a timeless woven look with the demands of professional everyday use in the hospitality industry. The glass-fiber-reinforced polypropylene is particularly robust, UV-resistant, weatherproof and at the same time easy to maintain – ideal for high-traffic indoor and outdoor areas. Thanks to its uncomplicated cleaning, high load-bearing capacity and stackability, Erik can be used particularly efficiently in daily operations. With a chair, armchair and bar stool, the series also offers flexible options for a uniform interior design concept – with a particularly attractive price-performance ratio.

• Strong price-performance ratio: Robust, durable and economical for everyday use in the hospitality industry
• For indoor and outdoor use: UV-resistant, weatherproof and easy to clean
• Flexible use: Available as a chair, armchair and bar stool, also stackable to save space
