

LEFT-HAND CLOSING ELEMENT D-LINE

Use your space more effectively with our elegant topseller bench system D-Line. Versatile and space-saving. Ideal for the indoor area of restaurateurs. Personalize your D-Line bench system as you wish. The modular bench system consists of various corner elements and respective end elements as well as straight main elements in lengths of 60 centimetres and 120 centimetres. The corner elements can be linked together with a steel hook. The supporting frame of the carcass is made of shape-milled multiplex boards. The seat and back are fitted with high-quality foam to ensure a comfortable sitting experience. You can choose from high-quality imitation leather as well as foot versions made of brushed stainless steel or beech wood in walnut stain, which round off the modular bench system. The back of the wall-standing versions is covered with fleece. Personalize your D-Line bench system: now optionally available as an electrified version. Visually discreet yet easily accessible.
