CHAIR GARYO

This hospitality chair made of solid beech combines timeless elegance with durable contract quality. The walnut finish gives it a warm, high-quality appearance while also making the surface particularly easy to maintain. It is optionally available with a wooden seat and seat depression or with an upholstered seat, which, thanks to our fabric concept, can be perfectly matched to any project in a wide range of materials and colors. Its reinforced, fully solid frame ensures stability and durability in the demanding day-to-day hospitality environment. The ergonomically rounded backrest offers a high level of seating comfort and makes the chair a stylish as well as functional solution for a wide variety of interior concepts.

- Easy to maintain in everyday use: The lacquered surface is durable and quick to clean
- Designed for contract use: The fully solid, reinforced frame withstands heavy use
